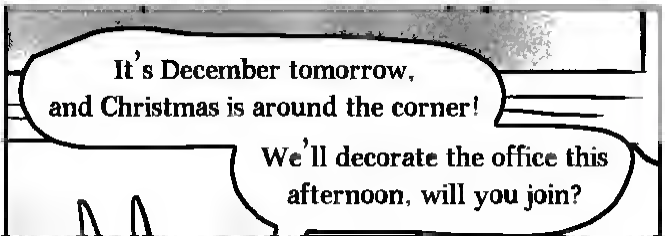
Everybody Got Somebody But Me

#1

Good morning Cheetah-B!
Hi Tiffany.



It's December tomorrow, and Christmas is around the corner!
We'll decorate the office this afternoon, will you join?

Sure.

Oh, how I love Christmas!
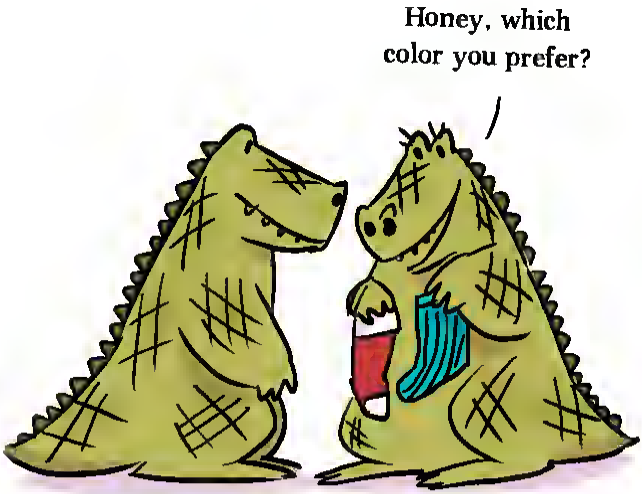
I think it's made for couples!

Allie is busy preparing Christmas with his wife,



Mr. Pigkles is going to have a romantic Christmas dinner with Mrs. Pigkles, and Giraffiel is going on Christmas dates...

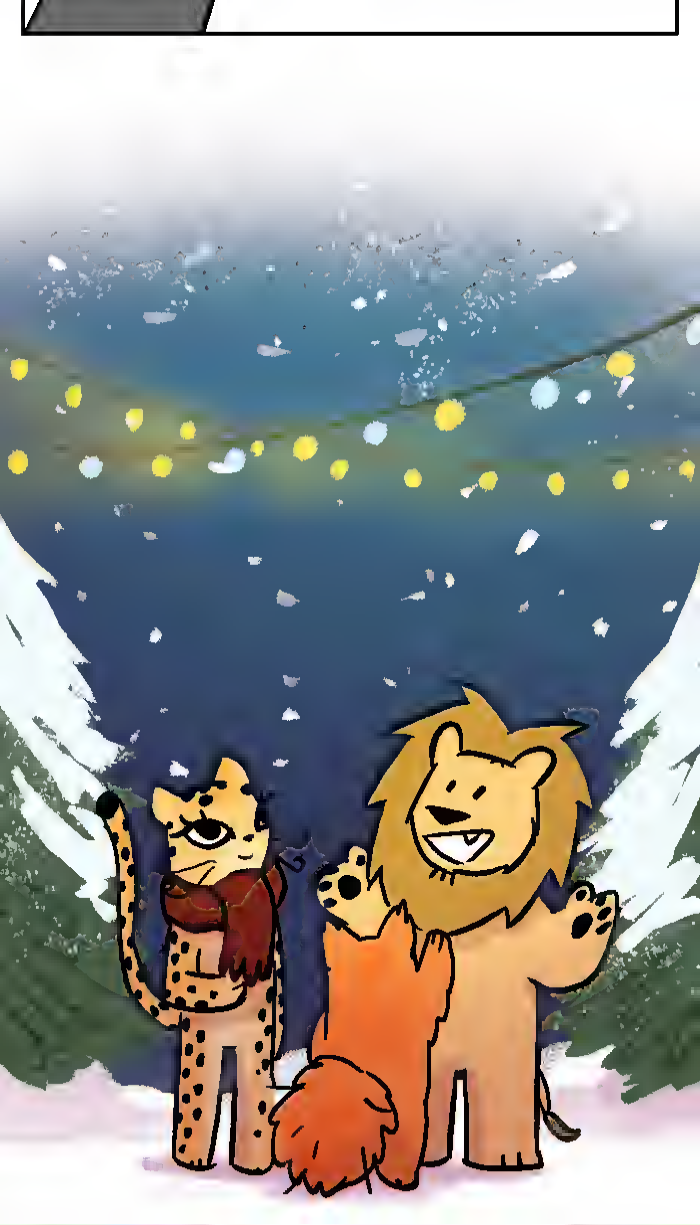
How about you and Tortis?
Oh! We are going to do some Christmas shopping tonight!
We are planning for a really romantic Christmas!

...How did I spend Christmas?

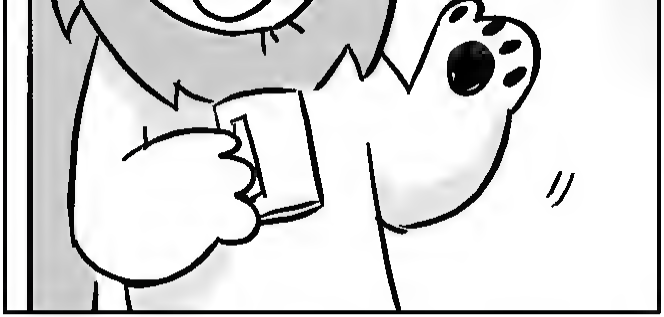


Foxy should be with Foxiara this Christmas, so...

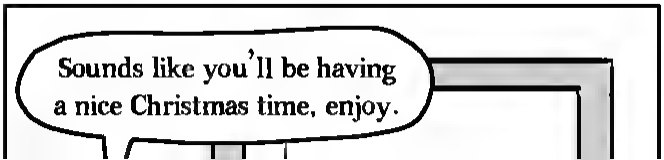
Hey. Tiffany's going to decorate the office this afternoon.
Great, I'll join later!

...You got any plans for Christmas?

Nah, Christmas is for couples!
My sister and her boyfriend are happily decorating their UK house...



Foxy's busy so I'll probably be busy doing my stuff as well...
Or maybe a family trip with my parents...



Sounds like you'll be having a nice Christmas time, enjoy.

See you later downstairs.

You seem a bit moody today Cheetah-B?
I'm just tired from all the decorating.

You seem having a good time with somebody.

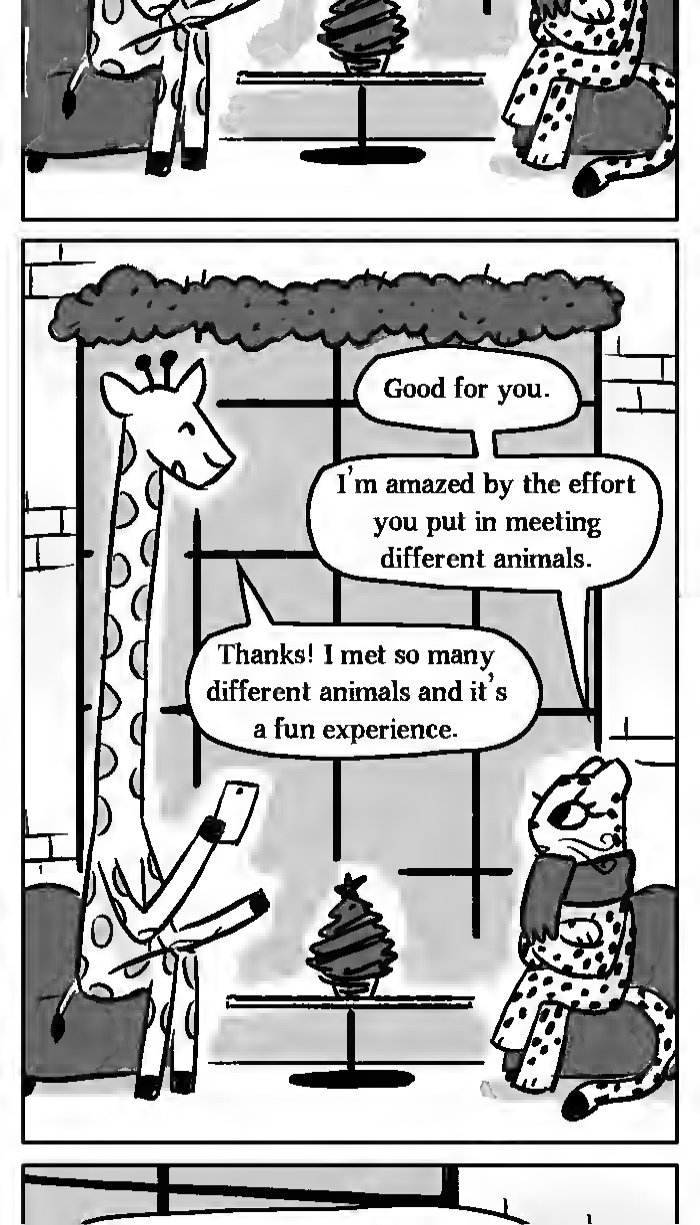
Horsie told me you're using that dating app?

Yeah, I'm dating a really sweet giraffe and I think I'll spend Christmas with her!
I'm finally not alone in Christmas!



Good for you.
I'm amazed by the effort you put in meeting different animals.
Thanks! I met so many different animals and it's a fun experience.

I don't think I can meet a boyfriend from these places though...
How can you be so sure?
If you never try you will never know!

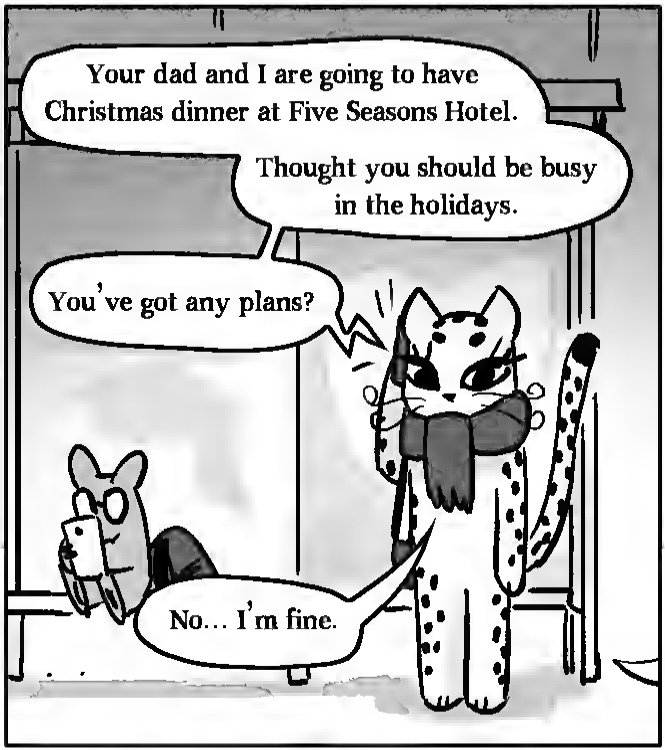
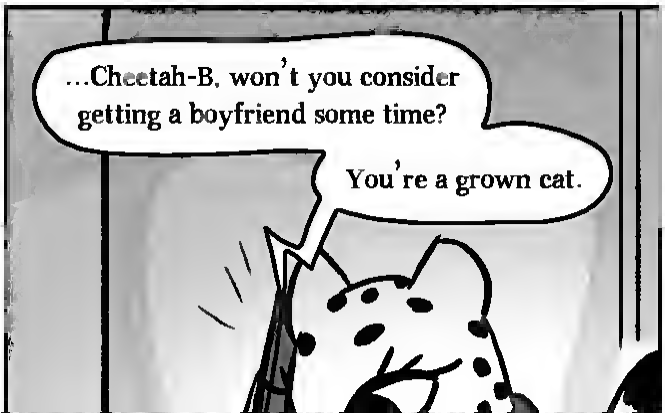
Hey mum.
We have any plans on Christmas?



Your dad and I are going to have Christmas dinner at Five Seasons Hotel.
Thought you should be busy in the holidays.
You've got any plans?
No... I'm fine.



...Cheetah-B, won't you consider getting a boyfriend some time?
You're a grown cat.
